

MR. KEVIN M. FAHEY
Program Executive Officer
Combat Support & Combat Service Support

Kevin M. Fahey assumed his current duties as the Program Executive Officer for Combat Support and Combat Service Support, Warren, Michigan in October 2008.

Mr. Fahey, a native of Massachusetts, entered civil service in 1981 following graduation from the University of Massachusetts. Prior to assuming duties in Warren, Michigan, Mr. Fahey served as the Program Executive Officer Ground Combat Systems, as well as the Deputy PEO for Ammunition in Picatinny Arsenal, NJ, with approximately 200 different programs and an operating budget of 3 Billion dollars. The PEO-Ammo executed life-cycle acquisition management of conventional ammunition and manages the Department of Defense Executive Agent for all services conventional ammunition. In February 2000, Mr. Fahey entered Senior Executive Service and was assigned as the Senior Technical Executive for Close Combat Armament Systems, U.S. Army Tank-Automotive and Armaments Command, Armament Research, Development and Engineering Center, at Picatinny Arsenal, NJ. His previous jobs include Deputy Project Manager, Crusader after serving as the Chief of the Systems Engineering and International Division for the Crusader Program, the Future Armored Resupply Vehicle (FARV) Program Development Project Officer and Chief of Systems Engineering, the U.S. delegate to the international 155mm Joint Ballistic Working Group and the M119 Development Project Officer. Mr. Fahey began his civilian service career at Watervliet Arsenal, NY working in quality before moving to Picatinny Arsenal, NJ in December 1987.

Mr. Fahey graduated from the University of Massachusetts in 1981 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Industrial Engineering/Operations Research. Upon graduation from college, Mr. Fahey attended the Quality and Reliability intern program at the DARCOM Intern Training Center, Red River Army Depot, Texarkana, Texas.

He has been the recipient of the Superior Civilian Service Award and has been inducted into the Honorable Order of Saint Barbara. He completed the Advanced Program Management Course at the Defense Systems Management College.